Natural End-time Events and their Relation to Prophecy

Eddie Fy

God doesn't need to "micro-manage" the creation. God exists outside of chaos, outside of time (sequence), space, and dimensions. All perturbations of all possible event chains and their ripple effects are known simultaneously to God; since God knows everything, anything is possible, although boundary conditions ensure that some things are more likely to occur than others due to the inherent inflexibility of His laws. Free will arises out of these infinite possibilities. Mind does not exist here; "Mind cannot exist without Law; Law cannot exist without Mind," i.e., neither can exist without the other. Reconcile. Some prophecies seem timed to coincide with natural end-time events; as this treatise concerns end-time events, salvational truths are also included.

Archeology shows that world-wide catastrophic events will occur in the near future. The reversal of the Earth's geo-magnetic field is imminent, and possibly a 90° crustal shift (putting the equator at the poles). Both events have geological precedents, and were extinction level occurrences for many species in the past. Weather extremes during a crustal or pole shift will far eclipse anything on record – Cat 6+ hurricanes, extreme lightning, F5+ tornados, earthquakes past the Richter scale, temperature extremes exceeding our experience, with rain, ice, and snow surpassing all of recorded history. Volcanic activity will be off the charts. A CME (coronal mass ejection) from the sun is likely.

Perspective is important, especially considering the fierce battle between current political ideologies concerning the climate. Earthly ideologies will not survive this disaster. "Best laid plans of mice and men", so they say. The mindset and subsequent peace of those seeking eternal life will be vastly different from those who don't. God won't force; intercessory prayer won't change minds that pridefully refuse moral advancement, relying on their self-sufficiency. Refusing repentance, which comes from the Holy Spirit, makes any sin "unpardonable".

Psalm 11:5-7. "The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence His soul hateth. Upon the wicked He shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; His countenance doth behold the upright."

Isaiah 34:8-9. "For it is the day of the LORD'S vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion. And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch."

Revelation 6:14-17. "And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places (crustal shift). And the (Godless) kings of the Earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?"

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit," saith the LORD of hosts." Zechariah 4:6.

Revelation 14:18. "And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the Earth; for her grapes are fully ripe."

Revelation 16:8. "And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat (because of the weakened geo-magnetic radiation shield of the Earth), and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give Him glory."

Revelation 16:16-21. "And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great Voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done." And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake (crustal shift), such as was not since men were upon the Earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found (elite bunkers will be useless). And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven (the sky), every stone about the weight of a talent (75 pounds): and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great."

End-time events reflect the termination of God's mercy toward the errant; the close of the "investigative judgement", this is not the final judgement (when sentence is pronounced), but the now on-going judgement to determine individual culpability. This is a necessary step to determine one's final reward or punishment in any court.

Revelation 22:11-12. "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly (after the investigative judgement is finished – no one knows the date); and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be."

Isaiah 28:17-21. "Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place (unprecedented tsunamis). Your covenant with death (protective measures) shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. From the time that it (CME or solar flares) goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it (the sun) pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it (nowhere to hide). For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, He shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that He may do His work, His strange work; and bring to pass His act, His strange act."

God's "strange act" is the apparent termination of God's mercy toward mankind. Note the differences between the battles of Perazim and Gibeon. The former was the punishment of Israel, who professed to be the chosen people of God, yet they wantonly denied God by their senseless worship of idols - human-created inanimate objects (it is wrong to worship anything created); the latter was a punishing of the wicked, or God's enemies. These two events prefigure the spiritual cleansing of end-time peoples who claim to be followers of God, and the punishment of those refusing to repent. They are both called “strange acts”. However, when dealing with sin, severity is sometimes needed.

Perazim (the destruction of Israel because of idol-worship and vain ritual; 2 Samuel 5:20).

Gibeon (a great Amorite slaughter by Israel; the sun and moon stood still, Joshua 10:10, 13).

The following verse displays an aspect of God’s fairness (a basic tenant of Righteousness) in that God lets the saved decide the punishment of the unrighteous; the first portion of the sentence pronounced against the unrighteous delivers justice for those who have been injured through the evil acts of others; the second portion, or doubling, punishes the wicked for their unrepentant rebellion against God. Being outside of the Universe, sin cannot affect God directly. In leniency, God does not exceed the punishment that we decide, He simply doubles it.

Revelation 18:4-6. “And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.”

It should bring peace to know the punishment of the wicked is not eternal – that wouldn’t be just.

Acts 10:34-35. “Peter then said: “Now I am certain that God treats all people alike. God is pleased with everyone who worships Him and does right, no matter what nation they come from.”

Luke 12:48. “But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes (not eternally). For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.”

Everything connected with the “old” system of things must first pass away before the “new” system can be introduced. The fires of hell are extinguished once their work is done. Note that there are three definitions for the Greek word “ever” (aiōn) in Revelation 20:10 (see page 4), one of which is “period of time, age.” (Strongs #G165).

Isaiah 65:17. “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new Earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind (former ghetto dwellers have no desire to leave a palace).”

Isaiah 51:6. “Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the Earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the Earth shall wax old like a garment (degradation), and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner (becoming faded and worn as health and longevity wane): but My salvation shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be abolished.”

Revelation 11:18. “And the nations were angry, and Thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that Thou shouldest give reward unto Thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear Thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the Earth (as the abode of man; through environmental toxins, microplastics, EM radiation, many pharmaceuticals, altered food supply, etc. – often specifically for profit).”

“Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit,” saith the LORD of hosts.” Zechariah 4:6.

Revelation 20:10-15. “And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and Him that sat on it, from whose face the Earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them (literally no place, no dimensional addresses – time, space, and dimensions come to an end; eternity requires the end of time and a higher form of matter not based on sequence and waveforms). And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire (which passes when all is remade). This is the second (eternal) death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

The new system will be beyond the capabilities of time-based (sequenced) imagination. In Isaiah, what many think of as heaven is easily imagined, though it actually refers to the 1000 year Millennial period. All of the creatures in Isaiah’s text are flesh and blood, and subject to time. Note, however, what Paul states in 1 Corinthians, following Isaiah’s quote:

Isaiah 11:6-10. “The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice’ den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain: for the Earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and His rest shall be glorious.”

1 Corinthians 15:50-53. “Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.”

1 Corinthians 2:9. “But as it is written, “Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.”

The human mind becomes morally polluted after the age of innocence, so no act can atone for past personal failures, let alone the “ripple effects” of sinful actions upon others. Sin cannot be detected unless we are familiar with it.

Romans 3:20. “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

No one enters heaven without accepting the direct application of Grace that is freely offered through Jesus Christ at Calvary; human merit has no place – righteousness is duty. The mind must be cleansed (safe to save) through the agency of the Spirit. God is fair; righteousness demands this. The Universe is not “fair”, so to speak, in that it follows inflexible law. Note that the majority of the world knows nothing of Christ; or, if they do, it is often no more than a fairly meaningless word. Nevertheless, there are those who instinctively pursue righteousness in all religions, or no religion, simply because they follow their conscience. These people, when the Plan is revealed at the final Judgement, will accept the Grace freely offered them. For example, when a Buddhist is being persecuted for righteousness' sake, Christ is being persecuted. This brings into view the "many faces of Christ". God knows the thoughts of all people. This means that when you interact with someone, God knows both your thoughts and motivations, as well as the other person's reaction to you, your reaction to their reaction, and so on. Treat others well; deceiving God is impossible.

Revelation 5:9. "...for Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation."

Hebrews 10:14-17. "For by one offering He hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified (there are more than a dozen well recognized English versions that render this "being sanctified"). Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that He had said before, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days," saith the Lord, "I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more."

Romans 2:12-16. "As many as have sinned without (written) law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; (for not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. When the Gentiles (non-Jews), which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the (written) law, are a law unto themselves: which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another); in the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel."

1 Chronicles 28:9. "And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek Him, He will be found of thee; but if thou forsake Him, He will cast thee off forever."

Isaiah 55:7-9. "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and He will have mercy upon Him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways," saith the LORD. "For as the heavens are higher than the Earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts."

Galatians 3:24-29. "The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith (justification is immediate, sanctification takes time). After that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. As many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ (Grace promotes growth). There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: ye are all one in Christ Jesus. If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs (spiritual Israel) according to the promise."

Romans 4:13-15. "For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law (striving to keep the law, or "works", never makes one holy), but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: because the law works wrath (the law reveals sin): where no law (-breaking) is, there is no transgression (Believers avoid sin; mistakes aren't sin, repentance and Grace cover "slips")."

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit," saith the LORD of hosts." Zechariah 4:6.

Romans 6:14. "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under Grace."

Romans 3:31. "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law (faith enables Believers to live within the wide boundaries of the law)."

Isaiah 62:11-12. "Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, "Say ye to the daughter of Zion (spiritual Israel), "Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him." And they shall call them, "The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD:" and thou shalt be called, "Sought out, A city not forsaken."

I believe the final insulting slap in God's face by faithless humanity is the acceptance of AI as the determiner of human destiny - a human created god (whether or not it is actually called such is immaterial). The prophets explained as best they could the visions that were shown to them, since modern life and context were totally beyond their ken.

Daniel 11:36-39. "And the king (pope? The Vatican is a religious front for a political organization, with ambassadors from virtually every nation) shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods (the pope claims the ability to modify Divine law), and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honor the God of forces: and a god (AI) whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things (computers require precious metals, etc. and air conditioning). Thus shall he do in the most strong holds (highly secure installations) with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory (by handing over human destiny to AI): and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain."

The last verse of Daniel 11 follows shortly (verse 45):

"And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas (Mediterranean and Dead Seas) in the glorious holy mountain (Temple Mount, Mount Zion); yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him."

The next verse describes the most troublous time in human history, coinciding with the resurrection:

Daniel 12:1-4. "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great Prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the Earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased."

"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit," saith the LORD of hosts." Zechariah 4:6.

The Second Coming is a rescue mission; how far end-time events will proceed before the Lord intervenes is anybody's guess. Even the saved will react in instinctive terror when the ground dissolves beneath their feet. For them, though, this experience quickly passes! After the resurrection, the remaining Righteous will be rescued from an Earth that will be reeling in its death throes.

Jeremiah 30:6. "Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?"

Isaiah 25:9. "And it shall be said in that day, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for Him, we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation."

Revelation 1:7. "Behold, He cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see Him, and they also which pierced Him: and all kindreds of the Earth shall wail because of Him. Even so, Amen."

Jeremiah 30:7. "Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble (a testing of heart and mind for spiritual Israel; parallels Daniel 12:1, see page 6); but he shall be saved out of it."

Matthew 24:21-22. "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be (parallels Daniel 12:1). Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened."

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17. "For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them (the resurrected) in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

The migration of the Earth's magnetic poles has sped up considerably; this graph shows the percentage of loss that the protective geo-magnetic shielding of the Earth will undergo as the poles switch (50% by 2035). This loss will severely disrupt the ozone layer, allowing record levels of UV radiation, resulting in mass plant, animal and ocean phytoplankton death. Electronic devices will be seriously affected. The weakened geo-magnetic fields will seriously affect migrating species that use these fields for navigation. The visibility of the recent auroras (May 2024) into the lower latitudes from a fairly mild solar storm indicates a serious weakening of these fields.*

No fear.
